PREFACE

Welcome to the 18th Falkland Islands & Dependencies + Antarctica Auction. I believe that this is one of the best auctions ever, especially from the collector's point of view, with a large number of very interesting, unusual, rare and unique items, including material from Velma Malcolm's and Nap Bound's collections, Fox Bay items from Nigel Lehman's collection, stamps and covers from a gentleman's collection, plus a good number of other interesting consignments, including many vendors in the Falkland Islands. Many sections are outstanding this time including Early Mail, QV stamps and postal history, KGV and KGVII postal history, QEII stamps, Censor Mail, exceptional 1982 material, outstanding Cork Cancellations on stamps and postcards, Fox Bay, a large section Postcards including Kosmos and PSNC card, South Georgia postmarks and covers, as well as Expedition and Whaling mail.

When bidding please remember that I STILL DO NOT CHARGE ANY BUYER'S PREMIUM (most other auctions charge around 20% extra) and this means that a lot with a £300 estimate in my auction, has a reserve (80%=£240) equivalent to a realization of £200 (+ buyers premium 20% = £240) in most other auction companies!

As usual there is a lot of material in this sale and I hope that everybody who receives the catalogue will be able to find something of interest. Please note that all catalogue numbers and values quoted are from the Specialised Stamp Catalogue of the Falkland Islands and Dependencies, fifth edition, unless otherwise stated. If you require further information about any lots, or photocopies, please let me know as soon as possible. I look forward to hearing from you and to receive your bids.

Stefan Heijtz

EARLY MAIL & DOCUMENTS RELATING TO THE FALKLANDS
Map	1	1770 "A Map of Falkland Islands" from the Gentleman's Magazine Oct. 1770 (240x165mm) with silhouettes of the "Sebaldine latterly called Jasons Islands". An attractive map lightly coloured	£50
L	687	1773 book "The History of a Voyage to the Malouine (or Falkland) Islands, made in 1763 and 1764, under the Command of M. de Bougainville, in Order to form a Settlement there; translated from Dom Pernety's Historical Journal, written in French", illustrated with 16 copper plates, second English edition printed in London by William Goldsmith and David Steel, MDCCLXXIII. Hard bound in half leather with marbled boards, quarto size (270x220mm), complete with xvii + 294 pages and 16 copper plate illustrations, including a lovely folded map of "Hawkin's Maiden-Land called afterwards Falkland's Islands, by Thomas Jefferys" (270x350mm), engraving showing "A View of Fort St Louis" (Port Louis) (100x250mm) and map showing "Plan of Acarron Bay situated at the East Point of the Malouine Islands" (Berkeley Sound) (155x250mm). This is the most important classical book about the Falkland Islands and it is quite rare. Currently two examples are being offered on the major antiquarian booksellers internet site "AbeBooks.com", and they are priced at £2,400 and £2,600 respectively. At some stage a small pen sketch of a Roman Soldier has been made on one of the blank pages in the beginning, and there are some minor spots, otherwise in fine condition considering that it is 240 years old. A major book missing in virtually every Falkland Library! Illustrated with several photos on page 51 and on my website	£1800
✉	2	1843 THE EARLIEST KNOWN LETTER ADDRESSED TO THE FALKLANDS. Part letter sheet from London to "Lieut Governor Moody R E, Falkland Islands", with red Crown PAID 4.FE.1843 and transit cds RIO JANEIRO MR.31.43, carried by "Sarah Anne" from Rio to Port Louis, arr 16/4. Sadly a corner of the cover with the stamp has been torn off, but it is still the earliest recorded inward cover with an arrival marking	£50
Δ	4	1871 top part of letter (no cover) from "Association for the Protection of Commercial Interests, as respects Wrecked and Damaged Property, London" to The Receiver of Wrecks, Stanley, Falkland Islands, dated 8 May 1871; marked "Per Oneida", with arrival cds JU.23.1871 (F.1)	£100

✉	6	1874 THE EARLIEST KNOWN LOCAL MAIL. Folded letter sheet from Johnson's Harbour to Stanley dated "March 14th 1874" referring to a cargo on board the Perseverance, including wool and hides, addressed to "Mr T Robson, c/o Short, Stanley". Letter carried by the "Perseverance" (Falkland Islands Company schooner) as local mail service was not introduced until 1891. A very important item! Heijtz certificate (2011)	£3000
✉	7	1874 "Remittance Acknowledgement" from London addressed to the Postmaster, Falklands Islands, with red LONDON OFFICIAL PAID 16.NO.74 cds and clear FALKLAND ISLANDS FE.2.1875 (F.1) arrival cds, both on the front. Most of the inside of the document is missing, but a very attractive and unusual item, carried by the "Black Hawk"	£400

✉	8	1883 stampless inter-island cover from Stanley to Shallow Bay, WEST FALKLAND, complete with letter headed "Stanley Sept 26, 1883" written by Captain H Seeman (Kosmos Company's Agent in Stanley) regarding the shipment of sheep to Sandy Point (Punta Arenas), addressed to Ernest Holmsted Esq, Shallow Bay. Carried by the "Malvinas" which departed on 28/9 for Darwin and West Falkland with mails. There was no official inland postal service until 1891. One of very few recorded pre-1891 inter-island covers. Full transcription enclosed. Heijtz certificate (2011)	£2500
✉	9	1880's (?) undated folded page (with poem!) addressed locally to "Mrs J A Pitaluga, Saunders Island, West Falkland". No postal markings so probably handcarried and pre 1891, when local mail service was introduced. Possibly addressed to the wife of James Pitaluga, born in 1846. A remarkable early letter	£500
Form	10	1883 British Post Office Circular with "Mails for the Falkland Islands" table of sailings June 1883 to January 1884	£20

LITERATURE - PHILATELIC AND NON-PHILATELIC

L	687	1773 book "The History of a Voyage to the Malouine (or Falkland) Islands, made in 1763 and 1764, under the Command of M. de Bougainville, in Order to form a Settlement there; translated from Dom Pernety's Historical Journal, written in French", illustrated with 16 copper plates, second English edition printed in London by William Goldsmith and David Steel, MDCCLXXIII. Hard bound in half leather with marbled boards, quarto size (270x220mm), complete with xvii + 294 pages and 16 copper plate illustrations, including a lovely folded map of "Hawkin's Maiden-Land called afterwards Falkland's Islands, by Thomas Jefferys" (270x350mm), engraving showing "A View of Fort St Louis" (Port Louis) (100x250mm) and map showing "Plan of Acarron Bay situated at the East Point of the Malouine Islands" (Berkeley Sound) (155x250mm). This is the most important classical book about the Falkland Islands and it is quite rare. Currently two examples are being offered on the major antiquarian booksellers internet site "AbeBooks.com", and they are priced at £2,400 and £2,600 respectively. At some stage a small pen sketch of a Roman Soldier has been made on one of the blank pages in the beginning, and there are some minor spots, otherwise in fine condition considering that it is 240 years old. A major book missing in virtually every Falkland Library! Illustrated with several photos on page 51 and on my website£1800
L	688	"Southern Ocean Cruising", Sally & Jerome Poncet, 1991, 60 pages, softbound. Includes Antarctic Peninsula, South Georgia, South Shetlands and Falkland Islands, as well as a list of yachts visiting South Georgia and Antarctica since 1902.....£3

- L 689 "The Swedish Hut in Antarctica", Goldberg, Wiklander, Capdevila, 2001, 40 pages, softbound. About Snow Hill Island and the house built by members of the Swedish South Polar Expedition in 1902.....£3
